WHERE TO STAY
From the charming private houses to the crowded colonial bungalows and apartments perched on hilltops, accommodations at Fraser’s Hill offer breathtaking views of the surrounding hills and valleys. Stay at one of the many well-maintained hotels and enjoy the peaceful, picturesque landscape.

Little Hamlet
As the central point of Fraser’s Hill, the hilltop’s little hamlet revolves around the market square dominated by a small clock tower – the most photographed object in this highland retreat. Picturesque colonial-style buildings have been meticulously conserved for posterity and used as a post office, police station, medical clinic, tourist information centre, shops, cafes and restaurants.

BIRDWATCHING
Birders will love the trays of feeding hoppers placed on trays at the resorts and villages. Fraser’s Hill Nature Education Centre and the newly opened Bird Interpretive Centre, where you can learn more about the wondrous species of migratory and local birds that feed for these parts around the first quarter of each year.

INTERNATIONAL BIRD RACE
The annual Fraser’s Hill International Bird Race is an eagerly-anticipated event for birders and bird enthusiasts from all over the world. A very interesting event, where the race is an occasion for fun and excitement in this little hamlet in the centre. The race is not a competition among birds, but a challenging 24-hour window for teams to identify the most number of birds in the area.

Fraser’s Hill has long been a top international destination for bird watching. The undisturbed jungle, green-clad mountainous terrain and the cool climate attract over 2,000 species of birds that come from far away as Siberia to escape the winter cold.

SOMETHING FOR EVERYONE

There is always something to explore at Fraser’s Hill. Relish the languor of pleasant walks under the green canopy of the winding roads, stop and smell the flowers along the way, try your hand at bird spotting, be adorned by the gibbons frolicking in the trees, go horseback riding, try your skills at archery, go boating on Allen’s Water or head to Jeraiu waterfall and have a picnic. Fraser’s Hill is a fabulous place to enjoy nature in all its glory.

THE TALE OF RAUB

Raub was a thriving gold-mining settlement in the 1800s. In the early 19th century, story has it that an old man and his son discovered gold with each scoop of the earth. Hence, the place was named Raub, which in Malay means ‘to scoop’. Today, the legacy of the golden years, especially in Command Hill, is very evident in the fine old buildings that remains till this very day.

LATA BEREMBUN

To get there head towards Kampung Baru Sungai Chalt. It is about 30 kilometers away from Raub via a rough drive through fruit orchards, oil palm and rubber plantation by a four wheel drive vehicle. It has the only natural water slides. The waterfall is gloriously set with a picturesque backdrop that naturally offers great spots for picnics. The wild and domesticated that trees yields fruits splendidly during the picking season.

NATURE TRAILS

Eight nature trails, each named after a pioneer naturalist is marked around Fraser’s Hill. Here is a guide to help you with navigation, so that you can make your expedition with nature more rewarding. Popular trails include the Kinabalu Trail, Mount Trail, Abu Samah Trail, Rompin Trail, Bishop’s Trail, Cheribin Trail, Millstream Trail and the Pine Tree Trail. Discover rare terrariums and unique earth spiders that will satiate the curiosity of even hard-core adventure aficionados.

“Like the trails here on Fraser’s Hill and when we trek with a group, we always say to see how many we can cover before the day ends. Our favourite is the Hill Top, whereas my wife loves the one around the lake.”

TEO OFF

Take your golfing to another level by teeing off at the Fraser’s Hill Course. The challenging nine-hole course was designed by Frank Hanneman in 1932, is the oldest course in the county. The hill valley is a great incentive for golfers to play all day long!

SUNDAI PASU HOMESTAY

Located about 13 kilometers from Raub, the place is set amidst lush natural greenery with a splendid lake and a beautiful fish pond. This Sungai Pasu Homestay offers a taste of traditional Malay village lifestyle, replete with cultural performances, traditional games and a hands-on experience in the rubber plantations along with the village folks.

LATA JARUM

Lata Jarum is a popular spot for family outings. It has a series of rapids that culminate in a cool rock pool. To reach Lata Jarum, visitors must take a 30-kilometer journey on village roads through a sleepy town called Ulu Deng. Next to it is Pulau Chekas, another favourite picnic spot.

LATA LEMBIK

You may reach this spot from Raub to Kg Ulu Sungai, then proceed to an arcing hill settlement named Pus Butam. From this point onwards it’s only 3 km to the cascading waterfalls.

This remote waterfalls feature an intriguing natural rock formation that is over millions of years old.
